References and Further Reading

Abstract

This document tests link extraction from bibliographic references, inline citations, and hyperlinks. See also the companion dataset at https://data.docslurp.io/evals/v1. Further reading is available in the bibliography section below.

Section 1: Background

Prior work [1] established baseline metrics. The dataset from Smith et al. [2] is available at https://arxiv.org/abs/2501.12345. A related DOI: 10.1145/3592608 covers structured extraction. Implementation details follow the specification at https://github.com/docslurp/spec/blob/main/README.md.
